

Netball

Netball is a game between two 2 teams, A and B. Each team during a game has 7 players who hold different positions namely Center (C), Wind Attacker (WA), Wind Defender (WD), Goal Attacker (GA), Goalkeeper (GK), Goal Defender (GD) & Goal Shooter (GS). In total, 14 players are in the netball field during a match.

Netball is commonly played by females. In the case of a male playing in a match, each team MUST have an equal number of males and an equal number of females during a match.

If Team A has 3 males, Team B should also have 3 males during a match.

How To Play

- At the beginning of the game, a toss is done to determine which side will hold the ball first. The toss is done between the Center players for each team. After the toss, the team that won the toss breaks the game.
- The ball must be thrown among teammates and scored at the goal post.
- A player can only hold the ball in their hands for a maximum of 3 seconds.
- The ball is scored when the player is inside the semi-circle, nowhere else.
- If the ball is caught by a player, the player holding the ball should not move the ball in their fingers, the player should not move their hands and they should not move their feet.

- Players have specified areas in which they can move. Free movement in these areas is allowed when a player is not holding any ball.
- No dribbling is allowed. A player holding the ball should not be touched and must be given 3 meters of space. The ball can be defended only if it is the air. The person defending the ball should avoid touching the opposing team's player.
- The ball is considered 'out of court' if it bounces out of the field. The ball is thrown inside by the opposing team player. Substitution of players happens during the match quarters or in the match breaks.
- With every score in the ball post, the team earns a point.
- Half time interval in a match is 4 minutes.
